REPORT OF HEARING EXAMINER

Appeal of Civil Penalty Assessment for Delinquently Filing the 2012 December Quarterly Report

The Report was received by the Board on January 17, 2013, 2 days late, resulting in a $100 civil penalty assessment. As a first time assessment, the penalty is stayed.

Paul O'Grady, Chairman, filed a Request for Hearing and submitted an Appeal Affidavit. The hearing was held on Tuesday, May 14, 2013.

Attorney James Nally appeared on behalf of the Respondent and submitted an Affidavit attached to this report. In the Affidavit Mr. O'Grady stated that at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, January 15, 2013, he attempted to electronically file the Quarterly Report. He received a password error prompting him to re-set his password. Since this was after business hours, he could not contact the SBE until the next morning. On January 16, 2013, Mr. O'Grady left several messages with IT staff requesting to have his password reset but he did not receive a response. On January 17, 2013, Mr. O'Grady called again and spoke to someone in person who was able to quickly reset the password and file the report.

In order to be consistent with prior Board decisions when an electronic filing issue is presented as a defense and since this defense has not previously been offered, I recommend that the appeal be granted. (As of 3/31/13, this Committee reported a funds available balance of $12,782.35.)

Dear The Committee to Elect Orland Township Independence Party:

As you have been previously notified, this committee failed to file the following document during the requisite filing period:

Report Type:	December Quarterly Report of Campaign Contributions and Expenditures
Report Period:	October 1, 2012 through December 31, 2012
Filing Period:	January 2, 2013 through January 15, 2013

Based upon this committee's failure to comply with the provision of 10 ILCS 5/9-10(b) of the Election Code, it has been assessed a civil penalty for each day this report remained unfiled. According to Board records, this report was received by the Board on January 17, 2013, 2 days late. As such, this committee has been assessed a fine of $100.

Enclosed, please find Section 125.425 Civil Penalty Assessments and the forms with which you may appeal the assessed fine if you believe the civil penalty has been assessed in error. Notice of Appeal must be filed within 30 days of the date of this assessment notice. If you fail to file a Notice of Appeal by April 15, you forfeit the right to contest this assessment.

Since this is a first time violation, the assessed civil penalty will be stayed. Any subsequent violation of Article 9 of the Election Code or of a Board Order may result in the assessment of an additional civil penalty as provided in Section 125.425 of the Rules and Regulations. If that subsequent violation is one which results in the assessment of a civil penalty, that penalty, as well as the civil penalty previously stayed, shall become due and owing. Therefore, you need not pay this assessed civil penalty unless another violation occurs.

If you have questions regarding the appeal process, please call Jennifer Ronimous at 217-782-1543.

Sincerely,

Sharon Steward

The Committee to Elect Orland Township

Independence Party

Affidavit

Paul O'Grady, being first duly sworn on oath deposes and states that he is the Chair of the Committee to Elect Orland Township Independence Party and has personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this affidavit:

1. On Tuesday, January 15, 2013 at approximately, 8:00 p.m. the Orland Township Independence Party attempted to electronically file its December 2012 Quarterly Report of Campaign Contributions and Expenditures with the Board. At the time the website for some unforeseen reason blocked the attempts to file and displayed a message that the committees password needed to be reset.
2. On January 16, 2013 Chairman O'Grady called the State Board of Elections and asked to speak to the person responsible for resetting passwords. Chairman O'Grady was transferred to the IT Department and a message, stating the reason for the call and requested a call back. The message on January 16, 2013 has, as of the date of this appeal, yet to be returned. On January 17, 2013 Chairman O'Grady called throughout the day, at least 4 times, again leaving messages in the IT Department for a new password. As of this date of this appeal, none of those messages have been returned.
3. Finally, on the afternoon of January 17, 2013 Chairman O'Grady called yet again, this time insisting to speak to someone, citing the unreturned phone calls. This time Chairman O'Grady spoke to a member of the IT Department and within two minutes the password had been reset. Once the password had been reset, within the half hour, the Quarterly Report, that had been first attempted to be filed on January 15th, 2013, was filed with ISBOE.

Appeal of Civil Penalty Assessment
For Delinquently Filing Schedule A-1 Reports

The Committee delinquently filed two (2) Schedule A-1 Reports on December 24, 2012. One pertained to a $1,000 contribution from Warren R. and Joan Hattendorf, dated December 15, 2012. It was 1 day late, resulting in an assessment of $500. The second pertained to a $1,000 contribution from David and Deborah Skillrud, dated December 6, 2012. It was 7 days late, resulting in an assessment of $500. The total assessment is $1,000. The Committee had no prior delinquent filings.

Jeff Black, the Treasurer of the Committee, filed a Waiver of Appearance and an Appeal Affidavit in this matter.

In correspondence related to this matter, Mr. Black confirmed the donations in question were, in fact, contributions of $500 from each of the four individuals identified above. The Committee filed an amended March 2013 Quarterly Report on May 6, 2013, itemizing the donations in that manner and provided supporting correspondence from each of the contributors.

I recommend the appeal be granted. The Committee has provided sufficient evidence to support the contention the receipts in question were for $500 each. Accordingly, no Schedule A-1s were required to be filed. The Committee's Quarterly Report for the period ending March 31, 2013, featured an ending balance listed as -$3,875.88. Board staff has contacted the Committee seeking an amended version of the March Quarterly Report.

Dear Deb Skillrud for Township Supervisor:

This committee has failed to timely file the following Schedule A-1's, Report of Campaign contributions of $1000 or more as required by the Illinois Campaign Disclosure Act:

Contributed By	Date of Contribution	Amount of Contribution	Date A-1 Received	Days Late	Fine Assessed

As required by the Illinois Campaign Disclosure Act and the changes enacted in 2011, as amended by Public Act 96-832, your committee is subject to a fine of $1000 for delinquently filing Schedule A-1 reports. This total does not reflect any previously assessed fines.

Since this is the first delinquent Schedule A-1 filing by your committee, the civil penalty will be automatically reduced to $100, (10% of the above referenced fine amount) regardless of whether you choose to file an appeal under the Board's present policy. The reduced amount will be imposed and due with the issuance of a Final Board Order after the 30-day appeal period has expired. This amount must be paid, including any previously assessed fines, within 30 days of the issuance of the Order.

Appeal of Civil Penalty Assessment

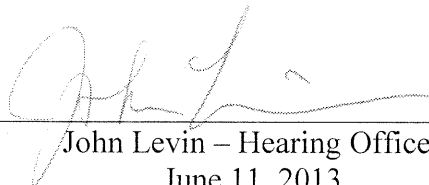

For Delinquently Filing the December 2012 Quarterly Report

The Report was received on February 13, 2013, 19 days late, resulting in an assessment of $950. The Committee was previously assessed $25 (not appealed, stayed) for delinquently filing the March 2012 Quarterly Report.

Robert Martwick, the Chairman and Treasurer of the Committee, filed a Waiver of Appearance and an Appeal Affidavit in this matter.

On the Affidavit, Mr. Martwick said he "negligently forgot about the filing date" because of a number of family medical problems. He noted the Committee's lack of activity during the last quarter of 2012.

While I sympathize with the Committee, I recommend the appeal be denied for lack of an adequate defense. If the Board accepts this recommendation, the stay on the $25 assessment for the delinquent March 2012 Quarterly Report would be lifted, and a total of $975 would be due and owing. As of March 31, 2013, the Committee reported cash on hand of $3,109.81.

Appeal of Civil Penalty Assessment
For Delinquently Filing the March 2013 Quarterly Report

The Report was received by the Board on April 26, 2013, 9 days late, resulting in a civil penalty assessment of $450. Additionally, the Committee had previously been assessed a $125 civil penalty (not appealed, stayed) for delinquently filing the June 2012 Quarterly report. The total assessment is $575.

Alice Mullinax, the Chairman of the Committee, filed a Waiver of Appearance, and submitted on the Appeal Affidavit the following:

On the Affidavit, Ms. Mullinax states the Report was not mailed in time due to a death in the Treasurer's family, leaving her busy with visiting relatives. She adds the Committee will file its Final report once their appeal has been heard by the Board.

While I am sympathetic for the death in the Treasurer's family, I must recommend the appeal be denied for lack of an adequate defense. If this recommendation is accepted by the Board, the stay would be lifted from the previous penalty and the total assessment of $575 will be due and owing. The Committee wishes to offer its remaining funds of $438.02 as settlement for the assessment – acceptance of this offer would be at the Board's discretion.

(As of 3/30/13, this Committee reported a funds available balance of $438.02.)

RICHLAND COUNTY DEMOCRAT WOMEN
APPEAL AFFIDAVIT CONTINUATION
June 10, 2013

13 JUN 13 PM 1:17

As the paperwork defines, the Richland County Democrat Women's Organization has been late with the previous campaign disclosure report. Our treasurer does not deny this claim. Due to circumstances beyond her control, and getting busy with visiting relatives, it just didn't get mailed.

As the chairlady of this small committee of a few ladies, I am asking the penalty assessment be forgiven. This would allow us to donate the remainder of our checking account to the County Central Committee. We would file a final report and disband the group. At least this way, our fund will go to some use in the county.

As a second option, asking again for your consideration if you don't see the appeal as proper, I would ask that you consider accepting one-half of the $575.00 assessment as payment in full. This would be the amount of $287.50.

Otherwise, I would ask the Board to accept the remaining funds, $438.00, as settlement in full for the civil penalty. We can do this, then file a final report, still disbanding the committee.

I appreciate your time and patience with our committee and respect your decision. Thank you.

REPORT OF HEARING OFFICER

Appeal of Civil Penalty Assessment

For Delinquently Filing the September 2012 Quarterly Report

The Report was received December 13, 2012, 39 days late, resulting in an assessment of $2925. The Committee was previously assessed $25 for delinquently filing the December 2009 Semi-Annual Report, $575 for delinquently filing the June 2011 Quarterly Report, $550 for delinquently filing the September 2011 Quarterly Report, $675 for delinquently filing the March 2012 Quarterly Report (appeal denied), and $750 for delinquently filing the June 2012 Quarterly Report. All previous fines were paid by the Committee.

Dave Weeks, the Candidate and Chairman of the Committee, filed a Waiver of Appearance and an Appeal Affidavit in this matter.

On the Affidavit, Mr. Weeks noted the Committee has been inactive for the last two years and was kept open as he decided whether to run for re-election to a school board position. He stated, "the burden for an inactive Committee to file timely computer reports...has been hard to keep track of."

I recommend the appeal be denied for lack of an adequate defense. The Committee has been consistently notified by the Board of its filing responsibilities, and its inactivity during the last two years should have allowed for quick preparation and uploading of its required reports. If the Board accepts this recommendation, a total of $2925 would be due and owing. On January 15, 2013, the Committee filed a Final Report. It has been reviewed by Board staff and accepted. Accordingly, should the Committee remain dissolved for a period of 2 years following the date of the Final Order imposing the penalty, the fine will be abated.

Dear Friends of Weeks:

As you have been previously notified, this committee failed to file the following document during the requisite filing period:

Report Type:	September Quarterly Report of Campaign Contribution and Expenditures
Report Period:	July 1, 2012 through September 30, 2012
Filing Period:	October 1, 2012 through October 15, 2012

Based upon this committee's failure to comply with the provision of 10 ILCS 5/9-10(b) of the Election Code, it has been assessed a civil penalty for each day this report remained unfiled. According to Board records, this report was received on December 13, 2013, 39 day(s) late. As such, this committee has been assessed a fine of $2925.

Enclosed, please find the Section 125.425 Civil Penalty Assessments and the forms with which you may appeal the assessed fine if you believe the civil penalty has been assessed in error. Notice of Appeal must be filed within 30 days of the date of this assessment notice. RE: Campaign Finance Reform Task Force

Date: June 20, 2013

The Illinois Campaign Finance Reform Task Force met on June 20, 2013 in Chicago and Springfield. The group discussed issues related to an upcoming report dealing with a number of campaign finance issues, including the effectiveness of enforcement mechanisms, whether the disclosure requirements and the definition of “receipt” result in accurate reporting, issues related to audits, the effect of using the same election cycle for all members of the General Assembly and the impact of the self-funding provision in regards to contribution limits. This report was originally due on March 1, but the task force has delayed its preparation to allow additional time to process testimony received at public hearings and gather other necessary information. The group expects to have a draft of this report ready for consideration at its next meeting. It is likely that actual recommendations for dealing with the issues raised in the report will not be made until the task force issues its final mandated report in 2015.

Among the other matters discussed by the task force was a concern raised by the State Board of Elections about the difficulties involved in trying to meet the requirements of the so-called “7 day calendar” that requires complaints filed within 60 days before an election to be resolved within 7 days. The task force indicated its willingness to consider recommendations from Board staff to alter those requirements or otherwise ease the burden of complying with them.

The Campaign Finance Reform Task Force has scheduled its next meeting for August 22 at 1pm.
